Coley, Sinclair, Swick Triumph

Davidson Repeats As Governor's Cup Winner

Ian Davidson, a native of Rock Hill and now at Clemson University, captured the men's open 15-mile race to win the Governor's Cup for the second straight year.

Davidson, who surprised a number of veteran runners to win a world class time of 1:13.4 last year, was a little off that pace but still clocked a fine 1:15.01.

Around 2,000 runners started the race and director Richard Harris said that was about as many as could be handled without problems.

Patty Sinclair, a 13-year old running sensation from Lancaster, was the winner in the women's open division of the 15-mile race with a time of 1:44 flat.

Wayne Coley, a former Furman University runner now living in Kentucky, was the winner in the men's five-mile competition with a time of 23:38. Dianne Swick, a 17-year-old from Winston-Salem, N.C., captured the women's five-mile run in 28:34.

Davidson was 13 seconds ahead of David Branch of Furman who combined with third-place David Cushman and fifth-place David Geer, last year's five-mile winner, to give the Greenville Track Club the team championship. Royce Shaw, also of GTC, took fourth place.

The USC Running Club took the women's team championship in the 15-mile event and Jean Eldridge finished second at 1:45 followed by Scott Moise, Marge Lower and Mary McCoy — all of Columbia.

Trailing Coley in the men's five-mile race were Jeff Moody (23:52) of Pembroke State, Lee Fidler of Atlanta (23:57) and Tim Colas (23:59) and Max Minter (24:07), both of the University of South Carolina. Fidler has previously won both the five-mile and 15-mile races.

Teresa Rau, a prep standout last year in Greenville, was second to Swick in a time of 29:50 while Jean Gunter of Columbia, Marsi McAlister of Hammond Academy and Rachael Hoover of Columbia rounded out the top five.

Greg Wimer of Irmo was the 17-and-under winner in the five-mile race at 25:05. Fidler was the 30-39 winner while Adrian Craven was the 40-49 winner in a time of 26:04, George Rash (32:40) was the 50-59 winner and Ed Shaffer (34:0) won in the 60-and-over group.

Paulette Ziefeld (34:46) won the women's 30-39 division with Suzanne Foster (37:02) winning the 40-49 and Wilma Poston (38:55) taking the 50-59 honors. In the 15-mile age categories, Eldridge was the 18-29 winner, Lower (1:46:57) was the 30-39 winner and Amanda Eaton (1:55:15) was the 40-49 champ.

David Clary was the men's 15-mile winner for 17-and-under at 1:25:53; Shaw took the 30-39 at 1:16:57; Guy Spears (1:29:26) for 40-49; Rudy Nimmons (1:37:25) for 50-59 and John Purvis (1:58.11) for the 60-and-over category.

Fair Run Forms Available

Runners wanting to pick up applications for the State Fair Run, scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 21, may get them from one of three locations — the USC Physical Education Center on Wheat Street, Phidippedes Running Center in Five Points and the State Fair Office on the Fairgrounds.

The race, a 6.2-mile fitness run and a 1.4-mile fun run, is sponsored by The State. All entrants will receive passes to the State Fair.
